

SCREEN / SOCIETY
BLUE ISLAND

FREE SCREENING
7PM FRIDAY, SEP 16

RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER FILM THEATER

"Deeply rewarding... poignant, personal stories. Constructs a sweeping history of dissent in Hong Kong over the course of decades." — Redefine Magazine

This cinematic tapestry of contemporary Hong Kong weaves together the memories of older generations' historical experiences with the struggles of the younger generation striving to preserve their freedom today. Images flow between documentary and drama, blending archival materials, interviews and behind-the-scenes footage, weaving an expansive tapestry that encompasses these tumultuous eras...

(Chan Tze Woon, 2022, 98 min, Hong Kong, Cantonese and Mandarin w/ English subtitles, DCP)

