

EVENT HORIZON

(Paul W.S. Anderson, 1997, 96 min, USA/UK, English, DCP)

Event Horizon initially bombed amongst critics and audiences alike, but in time, Anderson's gnarly, unforgettable, sci-fi/horror crossover has grown considerably in reputation. Starring Sam Neill, Laurence Fishburne, and a spaceship that returns from a journey through Hell, Event Horizon offers a fascinating cautionary tale about our inability to let go of the past, a tale enhanced by a cast that brings real depth to what might, on paper, have looked like fairly disposable genre work.
