

RAINER KOHLBERGER

FOUR SHORT FILMS

not even nothing can be free of ghosts
(2016, 11 min, Austria and Germany, DCP)

keep that dream burning
(2017, 8 min, Austria and Germany, DCP)

It has to be lived once and dreamed twice
(2019, 28 min, Austria and Germany, DCP)

There must be some kind of way out of here
(2020, 13 min, Germany, DCP)

“Rainer Kohlberger is an Austrian-born, Berlin-based filmmaker and audiovisual artist who has used custom software and high-precision technologies to create purely generative films, which strain at the limits of visual representation and human perception. In recent years, Kohlberger has also begun working with machine learning, reinterpreting ‘found footage’ from the history of cinema to explore philosophical questions of consciousness, artificial intelligence, and our own possible extinction.”

- Tone Glow

7PM WEDNESDAY, JAN 22
RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER