

"James Vaughan's 'Friends and Strangers' had me cackling at its dry and gleeful absurdity... It's mumblecore par excellence but laced with a satire of white Australia and its historical amnesia." -Beatrice Loayza, New York Times

Friends and Strangers

7PM Friday, April 8

RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER FILM THEATER

(James Vaughan, 2021, 82 min, Australia, DCP)

