

ONCE UPON A TIME IN CHINA

(Tsui Hark, 1991, 135 min, Hong Kong, Cantonese w/ English subtitles, DCP)

One of the pinnacles of Hong Kong cinema's 1990s golden age, Tsui Hark's riotously entertaining blend of kung fu, comedy, romance, and melodrama was a blockbuster hit that cemented Jet Li's status as the greatest martial-arts superstar of his generation.

"Tsui Hark is the John Ford of Chinese cinema." – Sean Gilman
