THE ASSEMBLY LINE

(Mathias Gokalp, 2023, 117 min, France, French w/ English subtitles, DCP)

In May 1968, the largest general strikes ever seen halted the labor of two-thirds of France's workforce. Set on the heels of that upheaval, Robert, an academic and far-left activist, takes a job as a car factory line worker, aiming to infiltrate the factory and rekindle the revolutionary fire.

Introduced by Prof. Donald Reid (UNC History Department); Q&A to follow
