

SCREEN/SOCIETY

<https://ami.duke.edu/screensociety>

IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND

(EN LA PALMA DE TU MANO)

(Roberto Gavaldón, 1951, 113 min, Mexico, Spanish w/ English subtitles, B&W, DCP)

A fortune-telling con artist with dreams of grandeur finds himself overmatched by a murderous widow in this blisteringly tense Mexican noir, starring Arturo de Córdova, Leticia Palma, and Ramón Gay.

7PM FRIDAY, SEP 13TH

RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER FILM THEATER

Roberto Gavaldón: Cine Negro

We are pleased to exhibit two newly-restored films from director Roberto Gavaldón, one of the outstanding filmmakers of Mexico's underseen "Golden Age of Film." Here we find Gavaldón in full cine negro (film noir) mode, with luridly twisting plots, fatalistic worldviews, and deepest, darkest shadows.

Rubenstein
Arts Center
at Duke University

SCREEN/SOCIETY

Fundación
Televisa

CULTURA
SECRETARÍA DE CULTURA

CINETECA NACIONAL
MÉXICO

Sponsored by the Program in the Arts of the Moving Image
(AMI) and the Center for Latin American and Caribbean
Studies (CLACS)