

SCREEN / SOCIETY

SUPA MODO

Terminally ill 9-year-old Jo is obsessed with action movies and dreams of being a superhero. In an attempt to make these dreams come true, her entire village bands together to bring comfort to her final days and turn Jo into the courageous hero that they already know her to be.

Winner: Best International Feature Film,
Edinburgh International Film Festival 2018

"Illustrates the power of film and imagination to unite and heal." – Brent McKnight, Seattle Times

(Likarion Wainaina, 2018, 74 min, Kenya, in English, Kikuyu & Swahili w/ subtitles, color, DCP)

FREE SCREENING
2PM SUNDAY, MARCH 31

RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER FILM THEATER

Sponsored by the Program in the Arts of the Moving Image (AMI)

SCREEN/SOCIETY

RUBENSTEIN ARTS CENTER
at Duke University